

Confessions for Our Nation

Our leaders will respond to the word of truth, the gospel of salvation

(Ephesians 1:13).

Our leaders will be strengthened and protected from the evil one (2 Thessalonians 3:3).

Our leaders will be delivered from opinions contrary to God's Word (Psalm 119:105).

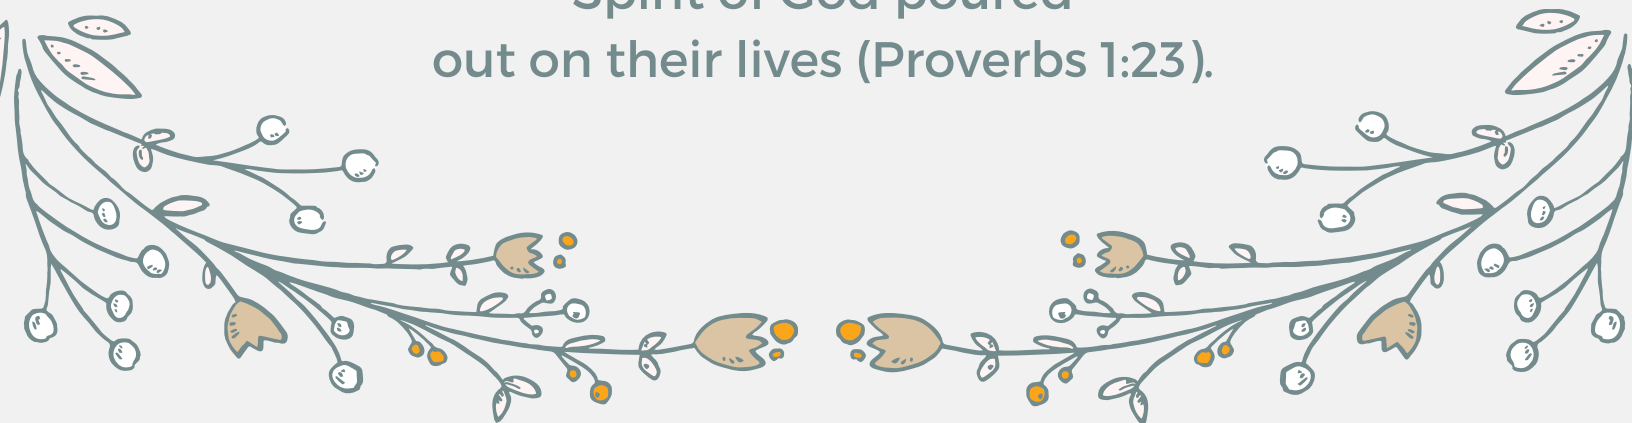

Our leaders will use discretion, wisdom, and understanding in making decisions

(1 Chronicles 22:12).

Our leaders will be equipped to act according to God's will and to make choices pleasing to the Lord (Hebrews 13:20-21).

Our leaders and their families will be protected from harm (Psalm 21:11).

Our leaders will be open to the Lord's reproof and have the Spirit of God poured out on their lives (Proverbs 1:23).

Confessions for our Nation

Our leaders will have the courage to do the right thing even when others urge them to do wrong (Proverbs 2:11-15).
Our leaders will accept wise counsel (Proverbs 11:14).

Our leaders will carry out their responsibilities with humility toward God and toward others (1 Peter 5:5).

Our leaders will look to God and His Word to guide them (Psalm 119:98).

Our leaders will give themselves fully to doing the work of the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:58).

The people of God will humble ourselves, pray, seek God's face, turn from our wicked ways, and God will hear us and heal our land (2 Chronicles 7:14).

jenniferhyates.com

